STATEMENT FROM MERCER COUNTY PROSECUTOR
JOSEPH L. BOCCHINI JR.

TRENTON -- Mercer County Prosecutor Joseph L. Bocchini Jr. confirmed today that he is in receipt of documentation provided by John S. Wisniewski, chairman of the state Assembly Transportation, Public Works and Independent Authorities Committee.

The prosecutor acknowledged that his office will review the documentation as well as relevant statutes and case law to determine whether the facts and circumstances warrant the filing of a formal misdemeanor charge pursuant to N.J.S.A. 52:13-3.

“It is my understanding after speaking with Alan Zegas, Mr. Wildstein’s counsel, that an appeal on the contempt finding is forthcoming,” Prosecutor Bocchini said. “In that case, any action on the part of my office would logically be stayed pending the appellate decision.”
