Trenton Woman Indicted for Ex-Boyfriend's Murder

TRENTON – A Mercer County grand jury returned a four-count indictment on Friday charging a Trenton woman with the February 2014 stabbing death of her ex-boyfriend, Mercer County Prosecutor Joseph L. Bocchini Jr. reported.

Edna White, 57, of Heil Avenue, was indicted on counts of first-degree murder, second-degree aggravated assault, third-degree possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose and fourth-degree unlawful possession of a weapon.

On February 15, 2014, Trenton police responded to 44 Heil Avenue on the report of a stabbing in progress. Upon arrival, they discovered 55-year-old Dwelle Jerome Clark bleeding from a deep stab wound to the left side of the chest above the rib cage. He was transported to Capital Health Regional Medical Center where he died on February 18.

White remains in jail in lieu of $75,000 bail.

Senior Assistant Prosecutor James Scott presented the case to the grand jury.

Despite having been indicted, every defendant is presumed innocent until found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
