Prosecutor's PBA Bestows Awards

The Mercer County Prosecutor's Office Police Benevolent Association Local 339 recently honored three private citizens and one detective as part of its annual award recognition program.

On January 9, 2015, Crystal Dixon, Jim Greene and Chris Samonski received awards for their heroic assistance when they helped save the life of Marty Levandowski, retired Mercer County Prosecutor's Office chief of detectives. On August 9, 2014, Levandowski suffered a massive heart attack minutes after arriving at the First N' Ten Sports Bar in Hamilton, NJ. Dixon and Samonski immediately recognized Levandowski's grave condition and safely placed him on the ground. While Greene called 911 and updated the operator on Levandowski's status, Dixon monitored his vitals and Samonski performed CPR.

Detective Brian Kiely of the Mercer County Prosecutor's Office also received recognition for his outstanding work in the office and the community last year.
