Fugitive Arrested in Trenton

TRENTON – A fugitive wanted on warrants related to theft charges was located this morning by members of the NY/NJ Regional Fugitive Task Force.

Mercer County Prosecutor's Detective Dean McCleese and Hamilton Police Detective Rick Prihoda arrested 29-year-old Beianka Taylor Gordon at her Phillips Avenue apartment in the city on two Mercer County Superior Court warrants. The warrants were issued by Judge Mitchel Ostrer on March 30, 2009, when the defendant failed to appear in court. Taylor Gordon is accused of cashing fraudulent checks in Ewing and Hamilton in September 2007.

Taylor Gordon, a former county corrections officer, was arrested without incident. She is also wanted by the Oldham County Sheriff's Office in Texas in relation to drug charges.

Despite having been charged, every defendant is presumed innocent until found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt in a court of law.
